

THE CAMBRIDGE ROCK FESTIVAL NEWSLETTER

MAY 2023

Greetings Festival Goers and welcome to the CRF Newsletter

74 days till the Festival!

Food

Last year, unfortunately, we did not have control over which food vendors we are the festival as this was provided by the Showground. This year we do and it's back to the variety and quality you have come to expect from us...

We welcome an old (sorry Esther) favourite in The Kitsch Hen. The Kitsch Hen is a small but growing business based in Horseheath, Cambridgeshire. They will be back with all your traditional and veggie favourites as well as something new for you to try. Everything is handmade with love and great care and cooked fresh daily with free range ingredients.

Red star catering will be bringing some spicy, and not so spicy, delights such as Katsu Curry, Sweet and Sour chicken, Grilled Chicken, Karaage Chicken, Thai green curry, Veg fried Noodle, Veg fried Rice and Veg spring roll.

T's Me is a mobile coffee company based in Cambourne near Cambridge. T's Me's fully trained baristas are dedicated to providing you with an amazing cup of coffee, tea or hot chocolate. All their coffees are made using freshly ground quality coffee beans and they offer a range of teas whatever your preferred taste!

Frank's Ices will provide the great British staple – the Soft Whip ice cream and lots of flavours of soft scoop ice cream

JJ's Gluten free Bakes Bronuts, Cookie Cakes and Afternoon Tea

With more culinary options to follow.

Traders

We will again be having a variety of traders. Here are a few we have confirmed so far.

We welcome back Double Duck. Double Duck bring their own Double Duck label clothing, silver jewellery, steel lanterns and other decorative objects, cards

Toadstool trinkets are back again for another summer CRF offering vintage costume jewellery, and vintage rock and music, accessories

Nigel Davies and Rocket Records from Bournemouth are sharing the record collectors emporium.
